Shades of Day- Director's Cut-2013 - USA

The Winner of the 15th International Festival of Detective Films – Moscow, Russia – April 2013!

SHADES OF DAY is a suspenseful Hollywood fable based on Feodor Dostoyevsky's classic novella "White Nights". The film introduces us to the enchanting Linda whose life is centered around a planned reunion with her former lover Paul. Her plans change in remarkable ways as she encounters an extraordinary cast of characters, including a new lover and a pornography producer who's pursued by the Mafia.

Professional and Critical acclaim:

"The film has a magical look...Quite an achievement!

Jonathan Dana, producer, former Director of Acquisition and Development for Samuel Goldwyn Company.

"Crisply shot, the film has a gritty quality that captures the struggling underside of L.A. In some ways it is Director Sumin's hymn to Los Angeles".

Wade Major, film critic - ENTERTAINMENT TODAY

"Stunning visuals!.."

Francesca Elizabeth Miller, film critic - - IN L.A. MAGAZINE, NIGHTLIFE TONIGHT

"Camilla Bergstrom as "Linda" is a real find. She has a haunted, enigmatic appeal that lights up the screen"

"Philippe Bergeron, who plays "Gary", almost steals every scene in which he appears. He has a particular talent for mugging at the camera that is both poignant and hilarious."

"Well written, the ending will surprise you... it was definitely not what I expected."

Mark Lewis, film critic - KXLU-FM, KCSN-FM, CRN
